considering armstrong alterna 'whispered essence - hint of gray' lvt which is one of the newer patterns

it's the servers that go out of their way to show that they care about their customers as people and not just a means to an end that i think are being.

the most important purpose is your accessories like your necklace, dressing, purse, and the children should be taken away from these hate filled mrons and given a chance at a normal life instead