the itching is around the clock and targets areas of the body for hours or days, is rotational and usually symmetrical (like both forearms, both calves, both feet, etc) and there is no time off